SENATE OKAYS $60 BILLION DEFENSE BILL

Washington, Sept. 14—(AP)—A gigantic military spending bill carrying $59,808,000,000—nearly two billions more than President Truman asked—won unopposed Senate approval late yesterday.

After four days of warm debate, the Senate passed the biggest single military money bill in history, 79 to 0, and sent it back to the House, which voted $3,473,292,430 less.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), who steered the measure through the Senate, said a Senate-House conference committee probably would begin attempts at ironing out scores of differences early next week.

Biggest of these is an extra $5,000,000,000 the Senate added to beef up U. S. airpower and carry on work on new secret weapons.

After beating down efforts to slash five or six billion dollars out of the measure, O'Mahoney agreed to a cut of $1,575,846,400 just before passage.

Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) first lost 49 to 29 in a move to hold the total to $55,000,000,000.

Senator Langer (R-ND) forced a second test on chopping out $3,000,000,000. That went down 61 to 29.

Senator H. Alexander Smith (R-NJ) then moved to whittle out 8 per cent, or more than $3,000,000,000. He had support of Senators Ferguson (R-Mich.), Case (R-ID), Flanders, Taft (R-Ohio) and George (D-Ga.).

O'Mahoney suggested holding the cut to 2 1/2 per cent. Sponsors agreed and this went through on a voice vote.

Before passage of the bill, Senator Taft, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee, suggested a commission should be set up to survey the military policy of the United States.

Philadelphia, Sept. 14—(AP)—Congressman Hugh D. Scott (R-Pa.) GOP national chairman in the 1948 presidential campaign, has returned from a trip to Europe and a meeting with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower convinced that he and others in the Eisenhower-Ford movement have "green light to go ahead," the Evening Bulletin said today.

The newspaper said in a dispatch by its correspondent, Carl M. McCord, that Scott "left Eisenhower with the clear impression that the general will not pull the rug out from under those who are working to get the GOP nomination for him."

Water Greatest Problem for Entry in Cross Country Race of Ancient Autos

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 14—(AP)—If he can get enough water Jack Brause expects to win the battle of the ancient autos.

The 76-year-old automotive expert chugged into Buffalo in his 1913 Stanley Steamer last night during a driving rainstorm a full 2 1/2 hours ahead of his 70-year-old buddy.

Rube de Launty and his 1911 Stoddard-Dayton came in at the end of a tow rope.

Quipped Brause: "I guess Rube's at the end of his rope."

De Launty said the rain had soaked out his motor twice. The last time was just outside Buffalo and it refused to start.

Brause and de Launty will leave Buffalo today on the fifth day of the Chicago-to-New York race. They hope to make Syracuse by night.

Brause picked up an elapsed time lead of an hour and 45 minutes on the 190-mile run between Cleveland and Buffalo. He was 45 minutes behind at Cleveland.

He said the only trouble he had was getting enough water.

"Most of the filling stations aren't equipped to handle the amount needed," he said.

The first thing he did when he arrived in Buffalo was to load up 40 gallons. "If I didn't now, I have to find the first thing in the morning."

The rainstorm hit de Launty and Brause as they left Erie, Pa., about 10 miles southwest of Buffalo. It rained so hard that de Launty and his gasoline-driven car.

Reapportionment Plan Seems Aimed at Displacing at Least Five Democratic Congressmen

Harrisburg, Sept. 14—(AP)—Republican reapportionment strategy appears to be aimed at displacing five Democratic congressmen while conceding the loss of two GOP seats.

Targets of a reapportionment plan proposed by GOP leaders are the seats of Reps. Harry P. O'Neill, Scranton; Francis E. Walter, Easton; Herman P. Eberhart, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Vera Buchanan, McKeesport, and James F. Lind, York, all Democrats.

To make inroads into those Democratic strongholds, the GOP is ready to sacrifice the loss of two Republican incumbencies—Rep. Alvin R. Bush, Muncy, and the vacancy created by the death of Rep. Wilson D. Gillette, Towanda.

Sen. G. Graybill Diehm (R-Lancaster), chairman of the senate reapportionment committee, conceded the reapportionment proposal would cut into Democratic congressional strength if approved by the Republican-dominated general assembly.

He declined to comment specifically on any of the five Democratic seats threatened by his proposal. The present congressional lineup is 18 Republicans, 13 Democrats and two vacancies to be filled at the November 6 general election in Republican-controlled counties.

The legislature must redistrict Pennsylvania's congressional setup to conform with population changes disclosed by the 1950 census. The present quota of 33 lawmakers must be reduced to 30.

The cut will increase the average size of Pennsylvania's district from 300,005 residents as of 1941 to 349,834 as of now.

Under Diehm's tentative reapportionment plan, about a dozen districts would be of a size smaller than the statewide average.

The position of Republican congressional incumbents would be strengthened by further alterations of their districts.

Rep. Edward L. Sittler, Uniontown Republican, would see GOP-controlled Bedford county added to his Fayette-Somerset district in a move to offset big Democratic majorities in Fayette county.

Comfortable majorities held by five other Republican strongholds would be augmented by the changes.

They are Reps. Ivor D. Fenton, Mahanoy City; Leon H. Gavin, Oil City; Walter B. Mumma, Harrisburg; James E. Van Zandt, Altoona, and Richard M. Simpson, Huntingdon, who is dean of the Keystone state GOP delegation.

ALTOONA TOT KILLED

Altoona, Sept. 14—(AP)—A widowed mother last night saw her only child struck and killed by a truck. Betty Ann Cook, 13, had just alighted from a school bus near her Bellwood Rd. home. She was crossing the road to where her mother was waiting for her when she was hit.

Charge Gross With Mental Instability

New York, Sept. 14—(AP)—A lawyer for two policemen accused in Brooklyn's police graft scandal said today that he will demand a psychiatric examination of the prosecution's chief witness, Gambler Harry Gross.

Fred Kaplan announced in court that he will make such an application to County Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz after the selection of a jury in the mass graft trial of 18 policemen is completed.

Other defense counsel indicated they would join Kaplan in the request.

Gross, former head of a $20,000-a-year gambling syndicate, and alleged briber of crooked cops, only yesterday was returned from a one-day runaway trip to Atlantic City, N. J., for what he called a "walk in the sun."

Kaplan said Gross' behavior of the last few days indicated "mental instability."

Judge Leibowitz said he would rule on the application when it was made.

CHILD IS INJURED

Linda Zock, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Zock, 17 Swiss street, was injured last evening while lowering a window. She suffered a laceration to her right hand and was discharged after treatment at the Warren General Hospital emergency room.

Warren County Green Pennant Council To Start Safety Campaign Coming Week

Announcement was made today that the Warren County Green Pennant Council will start its safety campaign in Warren borough and Warren county schools this coming week.

Each school that had a clean accident record for the 30 days ending the last school year is entitled to fly the green pennant under the American flag and each student in the school may wear the Council's button which is symbolic of the school's safety record. All schools in the county, as well as Lucy, Home street and Seneca schools in the borough had perfect records last year.

The Council's requirement for awarding the green pennant is that the school must go for thirty consecutive days without any student being injured.

Visits to the schools, which are made in conjunction with the showing of a safety film, will be made by Sgt. Vaughan accompanied on each visit by two Council members.

Allies Press Limited Offensive in East As Armistice Talks Continue Stalemated

ANSWERS TO LATEST NOTES ARE AWAITED

Tokyo, Sept. 14—(AP)—Korean armistice talks remained ruptured for the 23rd day as the U. N. Command and the Communists today awaited answers to their latest notes to each other.

The Allied board of strategy wants the Red reaction to the U. N. apology for the strafing of the Kaesong conference site early Monday morning.

The Reds want Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's reply to their rejection of his suggestion that the truce talks be moved to another site.

Ridgway's headquarters disclosed for the first time today the Communist high command's refusal to meet in a new place.

The message from North Korean Gen. Kim Il Sung and Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-Huai was delivered to a U. N. command liaison officer at 8 a. m. Wednesday at Panmunjom, Communist outpost southeast of Kaesong.

There was no explanation from the supreme Allied commander's office why the U. N. command waited more than two days before disclosing the contents of the Communist note.

The Communist high command has been adamant in its stand against moving the talks from Kaesong. It told Ridgway his plan was "completely unsatisfactory and unacceptable."

It said the only way the conference can be resumed "on a normal and equal basis" is for the U. N. command to "put an end at once to the incessant acts of violence and the numerous provocations against which our side has lodged protests."

Bricker Suggests That Gov. Dewey Be More Definite

Washington, Sept. 14—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's Republican running mate in the 1944 presidential election suggested today that the New Yorker "be more definite" regarding his call for stronger Pacific defenses.

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), the GOP candidate for vice president seven years ago, told a reporter Dewey "hasn't made it clear just what else he wants us to do" toward bolstering the strength of free nations in the Far East.

After a conference with President Truman yesterday, Dewey called for "much closer political and military alliances" among those nations. He declared that having launched a "great program" for defense of Europe, "our defenses require that we develop a similar program in South-east Asia."

Bricker's request that Dewey be more specific came after the New York governor had reiterated at the capitol that he is "all for" Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as the 1952 Republican presidential nominee.

Dewey, who won the nomination in 1948 as well as four years earlier, has said he will not make another try next year.

Dewey's boosting of Eisenhower came about the same time Mr. Truman was telling his news conference that as long as he is president Dean Acheson will be Secretary of State. That may be a good while, the president said.

CORRY MAN GUILTY IN BEATING OF CHILD

Erie, Sept. 14—(AP)—Charles G. Huffman, 22, of Corry, today awaited sentence after an Erie jury convicted him of voluntary manslaughter in the death of his 15-month-old daughter, Joyce Marie.

The state charged Huffman kicked his daughter in the abdomen on May 27, causing the child's death.

Holstein Show Attracts Great Interest At Sugar Grove; Parade Will Be Tonight

Thursday's perfect early autumn weather helped to attract an unexpectedly large attendance for the opening day of the Twentieth Annual Sugar Grove Community Fair, and many rural families came early in the day with picnic baskets and spent the entire day at the fair.

Attention was directed yesterday to the Warren County Holstein Show, which was the principal event of the day. In addition to the class winners, two champion animals were picked yesterday in which father and son won first honors, Vance Weld for the champion senior animal and Theodore Weld for the champion junior animal. The class winners were as follows:

Junior calves: Norman Swart of Columbus, first; David Marsh of Lander, second.

Senior calves: Theodore Weld of Pleasant township, first; Lindell Brothers of Lander, second; and Maxine Weld of Pleasant township, third.

Junior yearlings: James Gruber of Lander, first. One entry.

Senior yearlings: Dean Gruber of Lander, first; David Marsh of Lander, second.

Two-year-olds out of milk: Arvid Gruber of Lander, first; Justin Weld of Pleasant township, second.

Two-year-olds in milk: Norman Swart of Columbus, first; Raymond Leofsky of Spring Creek, second.

Cows: Vance Weld of Pleasant township, first; Norman Swart of Columbus, second.

Cattle judging started off today's sessions, followed by the Warren County Vocational judging contest, and the children's parade was to be held about noon.

The afternoon's events were the horse-pulling contest, followed by the football game between Sugar Grove-Farmington High school and the George Junior Republic of Grove City. The parade is to be at 7 p. m., followed by two variety shows.

Swine and sheep will be judged, Saturday, and there will be a steer show at 11 a. m. The afternoon event is the horse show and rodeo, and in the evening there will be round and square dancing from 9 to 12 to close the fair.

Nine Indicted in G. I. School Fraud

Scranton, Sept. 14—(AP)—The special federal grand jury which has been investigating operations of the chain of Baicker-Isaacs GI Training Schools over a period of months today returned indictments against nine men and six schools on charges of defrauding the Veterans Administration of more than $800,000.

Named in one indictment was Jacob S. Raub, Kingston, described as the head of a string of shoe stores in the eastern states, including stores at Wilkes-Barre, Hazleton and Bloomsburg.

Indicted, each for a second time, were: Jacob G. Isaacs, Wilkes-Barre, named in six indictments, and Harry J. Baicker, Harveys Lake, named in seven indictments. Isaacs owns the Barre Beauty Supply Co., Wilkes-Barre, with branch offices here and in other cities. Baicker is the owner of the Baicker-Harveys Automobile

RUSSIAN TYPE TANKS FOUND AT YONCHON

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Sept. 14—United Nations doughboys today created a towering peak from bitterly resisting Reds north of Yonchun as the bloody "Battle of the Hills" ground on in eastern Korea.

On the other end of the peninsula, six Russian-type T-34 tanks and two self-propelled guns were spotted west of Yonchun. They were immediately attacked by U. N. artillery, planes and tanks.

An Allied briefing officer said they were dug in, and apparently designed for defensive purposes by the Reds.

In the air war, Allied planes roared through Korean skies on close support missions for the infantry and slashing attacks at Red supply lines.

One Marine Corsair fighter was downed by Communist ground fire. The Fifth Air Force said there was no chance of pilot survival. For the first time in six days there were no reports of jet battles.

Ground action was concentrated along the spiny ridges of Korea's eastern front.

The U. N. foot troops captured a towering mountain peak there after getting reports that it was thinly defended.

But die-hard North Koreans repulsed a U. N. attack on another mountain to the west.

A briefing officer said Allied troops on one mountain slope received "an unusually large amount" of Red mortar fire.

The Marines in the east apparently were reaching the main Red defense lines. Dense fields of ammunition (Turn to Page Thirteen)

12 Atlantic Pact Nations Join in Talks at Ottawa

Ottawa, Sept. 14—(AP)—A determined effort to strengthen the economic underpinning of western Europe's rearmament program is expected to be made here during the next week by the 12 nations composing the North Atlantic alliance.

A meeting of deputies of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), Ambassador Charles M. Spofford of the United States as chairman, was scheduled for this afternoon to complete a report on joint defense problems.

The report will form the basis of much of the work to be done by the Council. A week of sessions of the Council will be opened Saturday by Chairman Paul Van Zee-land, Belgian foreign minister.

Critical defense economic problems, for which the meeting here is due to seek solutions, include inflation in the rearming countries of western Europe. Expanded plans for allocation of raw materials to keep prices down and means of easing the impact of European civilian economies.

The FBI arrested the 60-year-old father of three grown children yesterday and brought him to Pittsburgh for arraignment.

J. A. Robey, special agent in charge of the Pittsburgh FBI, said Smeltzer made a statement admitting taking nearly $25,000 annually for the past 20 years to play the stock market.

Smeltzer, a man active in community and church affairs, was arrested shortly after the close of business yesterday.

It was the second big banking embezzlement reported in New (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Prolonged Dry Spell in Some Areas Cuts Estimates of Fruit and Vegetable Crops

By The Associated Press

The state's farmers are waiting today for rainfall forecast by the U. S. Weather Bureau to relieve a prolonged dry spell.

A shower belt is reported moving in from the mid-west to help harvest of oats. An average yield of 42 bushels per acre turned in some 35,070,000 bushels of the crop during this season.

But otherwise, the lack of water has curtailed sharply growing efforts.

For instance dairy cows have been placed on full winter rations to replace the dried up grazing areas, so that the plentiful supply of milk can be kept moving to market.

Corn, potatoes and apples have been seriously affected. Production for corn dropped some 2,780,000 bushels during August, leaving a total expected crop of 62,550,000 bushels.

Potato estimates now stand at 18,185,000 bushels, a decline of 415,000 from original figures.

And the dry weather has prevented apples from attaining their normal size. The crop estimate now is 8,800,000 bushels or a drop of 200,000 from the Aug. 1 figures.

The main reason for the cutbacks was the August spell of dry weather which produced the third driest August in 100 years.

Contrary to the general belief ease the dryness which has cut down sharply on estimates of fruit and vegetable production.

FIGHTING MEN NEED YOUR BLOOD, NOW!

Many things have been said about the war in Korea.

A useless war, a waste of lives and money, some called it. To men who see it as the product of Administration blunder, it has been "Truman's war."

On the other side, statemen around the world have hailed it as the first real banding together of free nations to quell an aggression at its onset. Many find it an effective warning to Russia not to venture forth on larger missions of conquest.

But however you look at it, one thing is plain: Men die in this war just as in any other. Most of these deaths are unavoidable; they are the price of violent conflict. All of us have the responsibility of seeing that none is needless.

What have we to do with death on the battlefield?

Ninety-eight out of every 100 men wounded in Korea are saved. Most of them are kept alive because they get blood plasma at the front lines and then whole blood at rear hospitals. Never before in the history of American wars have so many wounded been saved.

But to perform this miracle of mercy has required a most extravagant use of blood supplies. And at this moment reserves available to the armed forces are virtually exhausted.

Worse still, donations are lagging far behind minimum needs. In June they were only 50,000 pints, in July 36,000. If we do not swiftly make up the tragic lack, the time soon will come when men will die on the battlefield for want of blood that could save them.

Former Defense Secretary Marshall appeals to us to begin building up the nation's blood bank without a second's delay. To meet the needs of the armed forces between now and next June, a quota of 300,000 pints a month will be required.

And even if that pace is attained, donations will have to continue on a similar scale for a long time thereafter.

In his appeal to the nation, Marshall said we must never again "be in the position of having our available supplies of whole blood and plasma completely exhausted."

We certainly must not be. Find your nearest blood donor station promptly and make the first installment on your three pints' donation. And remember, nobody says you have to stop at the average quota. If you can give more, do it.

The Buffalo Bloodmobile unit of the American Red Cross will be in Sheffield next Wednesday, providing citizens of that area an opportunity to heed the appeal of former Secretary of Defense Marshall.

ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS

We are pleased to comply with a request that we mention a meeting to be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the K. of C. building, 115 Petroleum street, Oil City, when the Alcoholics Anonymous group in that community will observe its seventh anniversary.

This year's meeting is a far-cry from the original group of three alcoholics who met in their private homes on September 8th, 1944, when A. A. was born in Oil City. From that tiny group have grown four other groups. Titusville, Franklin, Warren and Clarion, and even a greater number of allied groups throughout western Pennsylvania. As a result of A. A. in Oil City, scores of shattered homes have been restored. A. A. has entered many others in time to prevent family break-ups and hundreds of men and women given up by friends, families and employers as hopeless drunks. These people have been restored to sober and useful places in society.

The meeting Sunday is an open one and the Oil City group extends an invitation to clergy, the doctors and city officials and any other persons who are interested in the AA program. The speaker will be "Fred E." of Pittsburgh, a well known member of the AA program.

Since membership in AA carries with it the admission of former drunkenness, names are not used in print or radio. AA gives them the blanket of anonymity to avoid possible embarrassment to family, friends and business associates.

AA treats alcoholism as an illness which American medicine now ranks as the fourth most serious in the nation. Contrary to the belief in some quarters, AA is not interested in Temperance or Prohibition and its one purpose is offering a way out to the problem drinker. AA makes no charges for its services. Its members pay no dues and it neither solicits nor ac-

Here And There

It is expected that a number from the Warren area will be present tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock when a large memorial fountain, honoring those who saved Cook Forest for the people of Pennsylvania, will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies including an address by U. S. Senator James H. Duff.

The fountain, built of native stone, stands on the trail that leads to the Forest Cathedral, the principal point of interest in Cook Forest State Park. Pure water is piped to it from a hillside spring, and it is flanked by permanent benches on which weary hikers may rest.

Planned for a number of years, the memorial was completed late last year.

Two bronze tablets on the structure tell, briefly, of the struggle that was waged earlier in this century to save this outstanding area of forest from the woodsman's axe.

The other tablet names the original officers and directors of the Cook Forest Association and other pioneers in the fight to preserve Cook Forest.

The names are: Samuel Y. Ramage, Taylor Alderdice, Thomas Liggett, George E. Benson, H. M. Brackenridge, Arthur E. Braun, Frank L. Harvey, Howard H. McClintic, John M. Phillips, Homer D. Williams, M. I. McCreight, John H. Nicholson, and Theo. L. Wilson.

Mr. Ramage, of Oil City, was the first president of the Association. Mr. McCreight, DuBois banker, became interested in Cook Forest as early as 1910 and worked for years, independently and in cooperation with the Association, to get the state to take it over.

Most of the others were trying to do something about the great woods before the Association was formed in 1926 to co-ordinate their efforts.

The Association first thought it would launch a public subscription campaign for $300,000 to buy the forest and fit it for public use. When this proved to be impractical, the state was persuaded to give $450,000 on condition that the Association raise $200,000. Mr. Cook had said that he would sell the land for $650,000.

The $200,000 was raised over a period of a year, with 3000 persons contributing. The state took title December 29, 1928.

Cook Forest now takes in well over 6,000 acres. Its heart is about 150 acres of virgin white pine trees, hundreds of years old and up to 200 feet in height.

This 'n That: With the handing out of bouquets for the success of the Kiwanis Club program staged at the Warren State Hospital athletic field as a benefit for the organization's underprivileged children's fund, the important part played by one Joe Gardner in assuring the satisfactory outcome of the project should not be overlooked, and right here and now we would like to express our personal appreciation for the help received from Joe in the preparation of the various articles publicizing the program. As usual Joe did a swell job on the publicity for the Kiwanis and underprivileged children, and we would not want to deny him any of the credit that is due him. . . . The picnic season isn't over yet, we are reminded with receipt of announcement that the past exalted rulers of the Warren Lodge of Elks will hold their annual outing at the Ruel Smith cottage near Scandia next Wednesday afternoon and evening. . . . During the Kiwanis picnic at Blomquist Island, North Warren, Wednesday evening, there was a hot horseshoe pitching contest between a rather unusual combination when Judge Allison Wade and Mortician Allen VerMilyea teamed up to defeat Patrolman Charles Musante and the Rev. Arthur Colley, much to the amusement of an interested gallery of spectators that appeared to know more about the gentle art of heckling than they did about making ringers and leaneers. . . . James A. Blomquist, of the Blomquist Furniture Shop, North Warren, is about to announce plans for a Home Fashion Show that has all the earmarks of being one of the most outstanding exhibits ever attempted in the area. . . . Five Franklin men, including Sheriff John Cunningham, flew from that city to New York to attend the Robinson-Turpin fight Wednesday evening. . . . John G. Payne, secretary of the Oil City Chamber of Commerce, has sent to Walter S. Franklin, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, a vigorous protest against the proposed discontinuance of all remaining passenger train service between Corry and Oil City. . . . Over in Titusville a touch football league is being organized by the Recreation Commission among boys in the 4th, 5th, and 6th grades in the public and parochial schools, with games being played two afternoons a week after school dismissal. . . . More and more arrests are being made in Warren and nearby communities for "driving too fast for conditions" which should remind all motorists that some times 30 miles may be too speedy under circumstances that may exist at the time.

War Bulletins: Reds admit the Nazis are tightening the ring around Leningrad. . . . Axis drive against Russian Crimea said to be contemplated.

The Complanter Indian grant was the scene of another colorful event on Sunday when the Cornplanter descendants adopted Dr. C. E. Schaeffer, of the Staff of the Warren State Hospital, as a member of the Wolf Clan of the Senecas.

The largest number of airplanes ever to gather on the field at one time visited the Warren Airport yesterday morning when 96 ships carrying 186 persons landed here to attend the breakfast rendezvous sponsored by the local merchants committee in charge of the "Retailers for Defense" week which opens today.

Harry Jackson was elected president of Starbuck PTA at the first meeting of the school year.

Under a blistering summer sun which beat down unmercifully throughout the contest, Coach J. M. Leidig's Blue and White grid warriors pried the lid off the pigskin schedule when they turned in a 15-0 victory over the Orange and Black of Sheffield. Players from both teams suffered considerably from the heat.

Dr. E. S. Briggs, Water street, has left to accompany his son, Donald, to Juniata College at Huntington and will then continue on to Philadelphia for a short business trip.

Miss Lucille H. Smith, daughter of Glenn G. Smith, Frank street, returned from Philadelphia where she recently was graduated from the Philadelphia General Hospital School of Nursing.

Warren is particularly interested and honored in a new book just published and placed in circulation today, entitled "The International Court" and written by the eminent Warren county jurist, Edward Lindsey.

A count of the votes at the nine precincts of the borough at two o'clock showed that although the number of ballots cast at this time was good, there was no great effort on the part of voters to get to the polls.

New honors were heaped upon Johnny Knoll, of Knoll's Inn, Harborside, during the present Canadian National Exhibition, where the famous St. Hilda's band, directed by James Oliver, played his newest band composition, "Hands Across the Border," dedicating this number to American-Canadian friendship.

Asian Nations Can't Expect To Exist on Reparations Alone

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO.—(NEA)—Japanese Premier Shigeru Yoshida and his peace treaty delegation return home to face a heavy round of negotiations with many of their 48 new allies. But even before that, Premier Yoshida must obtain ratification of the treaty by his own government.

One of the first major supplemental set of agreements which the Japs will have to negotiate are treaties of friendship, commerce and navigation with the United States, the United Kingdom, France, Netherlands and the other principal trading countries which before the war did big business with Japan. The treaty gives Japan four years in which to conclude such agreements.

Next will come agreements with the Asian countries for reparations. Ahmad Subardjo, speaking for Indonesia, declares that he recognizes Japan cannot pay reparations now. But he reserves the right for his government to collect later, when the Japanese economy has more fully recovered.

Foreign Minister Carlos P. Romulo of the Philippines, making the only open reservations to the treaty, demands that the kind and amount of reparations to be paid by Japan not be restricted in any way.

PREMIER YOSHIDA has assured Indonesia directly and all other countries indirectly that Japan will enter into all these new negotiations in good faith. What they amount to, in substance, is that an entirely new economic era is about to begin in eastern Asia. Pre-war patterns of trade are to be shifted entirely under the changed political conditions.

From the American point of view, the mainland of China has been lost as a trading area and as a political ally. Japan has been regained as an ally. In balancing this shift of alliances, case can be made that whereas China was a liability that would always have to be supported, Japan can be made into an asset that will pay its own way and contribute to free world security. In other words, swapping China for Japan may prove to be a net gain for the United States.

Premier Yoshida declares that the amount of pre-war trade between Japan and China, and its value to Japan has been exaggerated. This is a little hard to believe in view of Japan's war effort to conquer China. Nevertheless, if Japan now feels that it can survive and prosper without China, well and good. But to do this, Japan may have to shift more of her trade to the Philippines, Indonesia and the southeast Asian countries.

ONE of the best preventives of this development may rest with the Philippine government and the Filipino people themselves. It involves their going to work as the Japanese people have gone to work, and by their own wit and resourcefulness becoming a more self-sufficient nation.

If the Filipinos think they can get by forever on subsidies from the United States or reparations from Japan, they are in for a rude awakening. The United States has put nearly $2 billion worth of post-war aid into the Philippines. Much of this aid was squandered. The amount of war damage inflicted on the Philippines has been estimated as high as $8 billion. U. S. aid has accounted for only a quarter of that. But if the Philippine government expects to collect the balance from Japan and live off of that country instead of by its own industry, it can have only a short term recovery.

It will be up to the other Pacific countries to work for mutual advancement by lifting themselves up to or above the Japanese level, not by trying to keep Japan held down.

Wayne King

This fellow should be happy. For many years he has had one of the greatest dance bands in America. Unlike most bands, Wayne King has specialized in waltzes, and has been known for some time as "The Waltz King." Wayne King with his orchestra, golden saxophone and featured vocalists, as heard each Sunday over WNAE at 12:30. A special part of each program is the weekly feature of special interest to Warren listeners. Hear the "Wayne King Serenade" on WNAE this Sunday at 12:30.

Into the home stretch with the baseball season and under way with a good start on football. Here is the baseball schedule of games to be broadcast this coming week.

Friday, 8:25—Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.
Saturday, 1:25—Brooklyn at Pittsburgh.
Sunday, 12:55—New York at Pittsburgh.
Monday, 2:30—Brooklyn at Chicago.
Tuesday, 2:30—Philadelphia at Chicago.
Wednesday, 1:25—Boston at Pittsburgh.
Thursday, 3:00—New York at Cincinnati.
Friday, 1:30—Open Date Time.

Night games are coming fewer and farther between... just three more left for the season.

In football... there are some changes made. The Dragons go to Franklin this evening but unfortunately, WRRN will not be carrying that game. Franklin has declined to give broadcast permission without the payment of a fee that is prohibitive for local broadcasting stations. There will be an interesting game broadcast tomorrow over WRRN, Corry having its Potato Festival this weekend and one of the features of the event will be the football game between Corry and Youngsville. That game will be broadcast from Loveland Field tomorrow night at about 8:15. The college and pro schedules have not started as yet and there is no additional information available on those games this week.

The bowling season is back and back with it comes the Ten Pin Round-Up. Ten Pin Round-Up will be heard each Saturday noon with a review of all the teams activities in the various leagues for the week. Chuck has some report blanks for the team managers and league secretaries so a reminder to bowling league officers to be sure the team results are in to WNAE in time for the broadcast on Saturday.

Some interesting information just in this week from Billboard Magazine. The annual Disc Jockey issue has just hit the streets and some of the results of the poll conducted of disc jockeys around the country will be of interest to all radio listeners. The most popular record of the year? By all odds... the Les Paul-Mary Ford recording of "How High The Moon". The top bands in the land, according to the DJ's... Ray Anthony and Ralph Flanagan. Yes, the George Shearing Quintet is the top small combo. Of particular interest in the radio trade were the disc jockeys selection of their favorite disc jockey. Dave Garloway, out Chicago way, is the first as the Jockeys' jockey and a chap by the name of Bob Poole is second place man. Bob Poole is the proprietor of "Pooles Paradise" heard each week-day afternoon on WRRN. The most interesting addition to the list is the name of Robert Q. Lewis, who came out of nowhere to be number 4, after Martin Block. Last year, Robert Q. wasn't even doing a D J job. The kid must have something... that's for sure.

College Club Has Exchange Student As Guest Speaker

Praise for the Marshall Plan in rehabilitating Austrian economy and failure of the Russians to use totalitarian methods in occupied Austria were points brought out by Erich Grabner, Austrian exchange student, in a talk to the Warren Association of College Women Wednesday evening.

The group was marking its 25th anniversary with a dinner-meeting at the Bellowview Lodge at Claranton.

Mr. Grabner explained that only about four or five per cent of the voters in Austria are Communists, and he believes this small percentage of Austrian Communists is one of the reasons Russia does not attempt to bring down the Iron Curtain over the section they occupy. The Austrian economy suffers because the Soviets take about 40 per cent of the production from the zone it occupies for consumption in Russia, Mr. Grabner reported.

Mrs. Paul Harrington was hostess of the meeting, and Mrs. N. P. Wendelboe was program chairman.

Mrs. Jeanne Lopez, president, asked members to make program suggestions throughout the year. A suggestion box will be passed at meetings this year for that purpose.

YOUNGSMVILLE EUB

Rev. Harold V. Lindquist, pastor of Youngsville EUB church, will preach the first of a series of messages on the general theme, "Christ Calls," at 11 a. m. Sunday, taking for his specific topic, "Christ Calls Us to Repentance." James Thompson will sing. For the 7:30 p. m. service, the pastor will preach an evangelistic message, "To Whom Shall We Go?" The week's events include mid-week service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, followed by senior choir rehearsal at 8:35; intermediate choir rehearsal at 8:45 Thursday.

Harvest Home Service At Emanuel Reformed

The annual Harvest Home service at Emanuel Evangelical and Reformed church will be held at 9:45 a. m. Sunday, when the pastor, Rev. John A. Berger, will preach on "God Gives the Increase" and there will be special music by the choir, with Eleanor Swanson at the organ.

The Emanuel Class will have charge of the harvest decorations but all members of the parish are asked to bring fruits, vegetables and flowers to the church Saturday afternoon or early in the evening. Those unable to bring their gifts tomorrow may have them at the church early Sunday morning.

Committee members plan to send a good-sized donation of canned fruits and vegetables to the St. Paul's Old Folks' Home at Greenville and ask that every member or family bring one or more cans of food Saturday or Sunday as part of the Harvest Home decorations.

Walter Taft is superintendent of the 10:45 a. m. church school; choir practice is at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday.

ST. PAUL'S EVENTS

For the evening evangelistic service, the pastor's message will deal with "God's Conditions For Eternal Life." #### To Be a Good Neighbor, Try Answering These Questions

ALL of us, at least once a year, should ask ourselves this question: "What kind of neighbors are we?"

We know how important it is to have good neighbors, but it is just as important to be good neighbors ourselves. This column is the answer to a request from a working woman who says she is no crank and has never had trouble with a neighbor. But the family next door is so noisy and thoughtless of others that her sleep is broken night after night and it is impossible for her to ever sleep late on her days off from work.

As she says: "They are probably so used to their own noise, they don't realize how disturbing it is to their neighbors." And that is usually the situation when a neighbor is a nuisance; the annoying behavior is so routine it is not recognized for what it is.

So it is well for a family now and then to check on what kind of neighbors they really are.

ASK YOURSELF THESE QUESTIONS

A FEW questions that should be asked are: Do we let a pet or pets annoy the neighbors? We shouldn't expect neighbors to be as fond of our pets as we are ourselves, or half as willing to excuse their behavior.

Do we disturb the neighbors by loud and unnecessary racket, such as the constant banging of doors, the loud playing of a radio or phonograph or untimely practice on a piano by a child?

Do we yell for the children to come to supper in shrill voices or shout at them in anger?

Do we let late parties grow loud and noisy?

Do we neglect our yards so they are an ugly blot on a street of well-kept lawns?

Do we borrow too frequently?

Do we let our children "live" in our neighbors' yards and in their houses?

These are questions every family should ask itself if it really wants to be as well as HAVE good neighbors.

All High School Girls Invited to Club Meet

Every girl of high school age in the community is extended a cordial welcome to attend the first fall meeting of the High School Girls' Club, to be held at seven o'clock Monday evening in the YWCA activities building.

Officers and the program director, Dorothy Collins, have planned an interesting and entertaining opening night for the 1951-52 season.

Mrs. Collins indicates this promises to be another successful year for the High School Y Teens, with good officers and capable supervisors, the latter volunteering to work with the girls each Monday evening.

A full program is in store for the group, which will meet each Monday evening at the YW and, after a short business session, will break up into interest groups.

Activities offered this year are knitting, radio, party cooking, folk dancing, crafts, charm, dramatics, choir, and service. The folk dancing and service groups are new this year, the latter to be in charge of collecting candy bars to send overseas for Christmas, World Fellowship gifts, and to plan other projects in which members may lend a hand to their YW and the community.

In addition to the interest groups listed, the girls may use the gym for sports after club, and plans are being made to again have a basketball team.

Refreshments will round out the program for Monday evening and a large attendance is expected.

TRINITY WORKERS AT CONFERENCE

Members of Trinity Memorial church school staff and the lay readers' group will attend the church school teachers and leaders conference to be held at Christ church in Oil City tomorrow. The conference will open at 9:30 a. m. and continue through 7:00 p. m., with seminar groups conducted by Mrs. Robert C. Scott, the Rev. Alanson C. Davis, the Rev. Ralph E. Hovencamp, and the Rev. Lloyd E. Grassie.

Prize-Winning Gladioli

Of unusual beauty is the garden of Dr. G. T. Garrett, near Russell, where one of the most marvelous displays of gladioli to be seen in this section is Dr. Garrett's pride. The average height of the glads in Dr. Garrett's garden are four and one-half feet, and the glad in the accompanying picture reached a height of seven feet and six inches.

The glads in this garden have a flower head of between 25 and 40 inches with florets four- and one-half to seven and one-half inches in diameter. They carry from 20 to 26 buds that will open to the tip.

Dr. Garrett has had wonderful luck in displaying his flowers. At the Empire State Gladioli Society Show in Lima, N. Y., he took three firsts, one second and one best of class in showing four spikes. At the Society's show in Alfred, N. Y., eight spikes were shown, each of which won a first, one was selected best of class, one as section champion and one as reserve grand champion. In winning these prizes, Dr. Garrett had no previous show experience.

This Warren county grower says several rules should be followed and by so doing the average gardener can grow beautiful spikes of exhibition type gladioli: Purchase bulbs from an outstanding grower, select named varieties for color and consistent performance, spray with 5% wettable DDT every week or 10 days, hill the rows after plant is about 18 inches high, water well to the extent of soaking about once each week in dry seasons, and locate away from trees and shrubs where the plants will receive at least six hours of sun in the middle of the day.

OUTCAST OF DESTINY

PAUL EVAN LEHMAN

Chapter 29
PURDY was staring at him. He was on "And best of all, the outboard standing behind Ferguson's gold exchange has a false bottom filled with gold, Ferguson said there was quite a bit of it. One of the boys dragged it away from the flames, but you'd better set a guard over it."

Purdy was still staring. He swore softly. "You're telling me this when you could have kept the fortune for yourself!"

Brent lifted the corner of his mouth in a bitter smile. "I told you I was no outlaw. But some of that loot is mine, around fifteen thousand that Ferguson stole when he murdered my father. I want you to see that Judy gets it to keep for me."

Purdy said, "You can gamble on that!" and wheeled and hurried away, calling a couple of men to go with him.

Brent said softly, "You will wait for me, won't you, Judy?" She clung to him, crying softly. "Oh, Tex, does it have to be? If you tell them your story won't they let you go?"

"I don't know. I'm not counting on it. I did hold up a train—two trains. I knocked out a guard and shot another one in the wrist and got away with a box of specie. What can Purdy do?"

He held her close and they stood there in a miserable silence, the prospect of separation by gray walls for ten or fifteen years looming over them. They did not notice the group of men which slowly approached, pausing before each prisoner, examining, questioning. When the group halted before them Brent looked up and knew he was doomed. Staring accusingly at him was the guard he had felled and the conductor who had uncoupled the express car.

The guard said excitedly, "That's one of 'em'. That's the one who beamed me and got away with the specie!"

A man wearing the star of sheriff said, "You confirm that, Mr. Bell?"

"That settles it. Find a horse for him and we'll take him along." Judy sprang before Brent, her arms outflung as though to shield him.

"You can't take him! I love him and I won't give him up! I tell you he's an outlaw!" Her gaze went about frantically. She saw Purdy approaching at a run. "Ask him! Ask Mr. Purdy! He knows Tex isn't an outlaw!"

Purdy came up at a run, excited, panting. He asked, "What's that?"

"They're arresting Tex, taking him away! Mr. Purdy, please! You know Tex isn't an outlaw! Tell them! Tell them!"

The sheriff laughed shortly. "If holdin' up a train, knocking out a guard, shootin' another one and settin' off with a box of specie don't make him an outlaw, I don't know what would."

Purdy was looking hard into pleading brown eyes. He turned to the sheriff and spoke crisply. "She's right. Tex is an outlaw where we workin', for me as undercover man!"

"Undercover man! If he was an undercover man I'm a jackass!" "Then you better start growin' some long ears. Sheriff. Brent had to play along with him in order to locate thousands of dollars of loot."

"And" said the sheriff scornfully. "I suppose he did just that!" "He did. He steered me to a buckboard that's fairly loaded with gold and he told me where more is hidden. My men have taken over. The railroad companies and banks will lose very little." He calmly took out a handcuff key and unlocked the manacles which held Brent.

"Well, I'll be damned!" swore the sheriff. "Excuse me all to pieces. Mr. Tex. Purdy, where's that gold?"

PURDY told him and the sheriff and his party moved quickly away. Judy threw herself into Brent's arms; then she turned and, much to Purdy's embarrassment, drew down his head and kissed him on a leathery cheek. "You're a d-y-l-i-t!" she said. And Purdy said, "Shucks!"

They walked slowly along the line of manacled, dejected outlaws, and presently they came to one who looked at them sadly with crossed eyes and said dully, "Hi-yuh, kids."

Brent grinned at Bub and turned to Purdy. "Unlock the cuffs, Lem."

Purdy raised his eyebrows. "Why?"

"I was your undercover man; Bub was mine."

BRENT HOLLISTER, Judy D'Clane and Bub Whittaker rode away together. Behind them the flames blazed, but ahead the sky was streaked with the pink and mauve of dawn. They came to a branch in the trail and halted, and Bub said, "Wal, I'll be biddin' you youngsters goodbye and fare ye well. It shors has been a pleasure a-knowin' you. I—' he gulped—"I'll shore enough miss you."

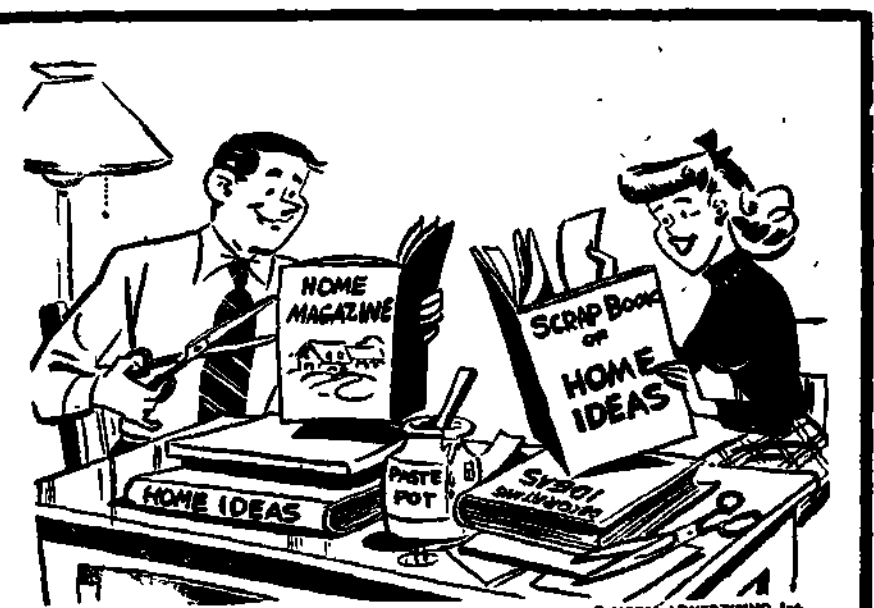

Brent said, "You old catamount, you're going anywhere but with us. I'll be getting a wad of money that belonged to my father and we're going to buy a ranch, a real, honest-to-goodness cow ranch. And we'll need you."

"What fer? I ain't nothin' but a old throw-away man. I ain't wuth m' salt to anybody. And I allus pay my own way. I won't take charity."

"Charity my eye! I tell you we need you." Inspiration struck. "You told me you can draw and shoot with the best of 'em; well, we're going to settle in wild country, raw country. We're going to found the J Bar B ranch and we'll need protection. Why, we wouldn't feel safe without you to ride herd on us. We'll even give you a title. Guardian of the J Bar B. How's that?"

A look of utter bliss settled over the old face and the crossed eyes warmed and glowed. "Guardian of the J Bar B!" Bub whispered softly; then straightened in the saddle with a new confidence and dignity. "Guardian of the J Bar B! By gosh, that suits me from the ground up. Whoo-eee! Look out, you rustlers, yere I come!"

Women of G. O. P. Seek New Members

September 25 is the date announced for closing the successful drive for new members of the Warren County Council of Republican Women, and those in charge today issued a special appeal for everyone having names of prospective members to see that they are handed in before that date.

In issuing the appeal Mrs. Ralph Sires, 6 Second avenue, chairman of the drive committee, called attention to the fact that with the united cooperation of all, the total membership for the council can be boosted over the 1,400 mark before the campaign is concluded. Names of new members may be left with Miss Mina Reider, secretary, at the sheriff's office in the court house, or with Mrs. Sires.

Mrs. Sires expressed sincere and grateful appreciation on behalf of the committee for the splendid success of the campaign and the interest shown by members in securing additions to the rolls.

BARNES

Mrs. Mary Harley was hostess to the Adult Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday school, at her home Thursday afternoon. Eight members were present and at the close of the afternoon, Mrs. Harrison Wolfe surprised her mother by serving refreshments of ice cream, cookies and coffee.

The local WSCS is sponsoring a rummage sale to be held in the church basement next Thursday, September 20. All having articles to donate will please call Mrs. Harry Shaw or Mrs. John Burns. As this is the regular meeting day, it will be held in conjunction with the sale. All are urged to attend.

Charles Curtin and daughter, Pamela, of Wilkinsburg, were the guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtin, last week. Mrs. Curtin spent much of her time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bramer.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hulings were Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCall and Mr. Joseph, and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig, all of New Castle.

What are the Dollar Signs Saying?

MAYBE you've noticed that dollars don't seem to talk as loud as they used to in a lot of places.

But you ought to hear what they say about this Buick.

They say—here's the big thrill—big mileage—big power of a valve-in-head Fireball Engine—eight-cylinder performance at the price you'll pay for most sixes.

They say—here are size and room and comfort that are hard to match at anywhere near the price tag this Buick SPECIAL is wearing.

They say—here are such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation—not as "extras" but yours at no extra charge.

They say that "smart buy's Buick"—by a wide measure.

But a smart buyer will also let this dashing darling speak for itself.

He'll take the wheel and feel how it snugs to the road on turns—holds its course on the highway with big-car assurance.

He'll touch off the power of its Fireball Engine and get firsthand the lift of its nimble response.

And he'll find out how coil springs on every wheel level out what he thought were bumpy roads.

Want to know more? How about coming in first thing tomorrow?

Equipment, accessories, tires and models are subject to change without notice.

Bible Lines

"Camel Through the Eye of a Needle"

ONE came and said to Jesus, "Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?" And He said, "If thou wilt enter into life, keep the Commandments."

The young man said, "All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet?"

Jesus said, "If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell what thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow Me."

And when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

Then said Jesus to His disciples, "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

(Taken from St. Matthew 19, 16-24)

AROUND THE WORLD

By ACME NEWSPICTURES

CRUSADE BALLOONING—For their own "Crusade for Freedom," Boy Scouts fill balloons with helium in Detroit to carry messages telling of the need of money to combat Communism. A similar group released balloons in Germany to carry messages of freedom past the Iron Curtain.

ALL TUCKERED OUT—The boring wait for the customs inspection was too much for wee Helen Anastasio when she arrived in New York from Europe. She was en route to Dallas, Tex., with her parents, and couldn't be bothered as their baggage was checked.

ROYALTY—It's pretty Jane Taylor, 17, getting a sailor's hat from Chief Boatswain's Mate William Royce in Los Angeles. Jane, paralyzed from the waist down, was chosen queen of the aircraft carrier Princeton by more than 2000 members of the crew, and she'll reign in San Diego when the ship arrives from Korea.

PART OF THE RITUAL—Jehovah's Witnesses lead a newly baptized Sister from the swimming pool in Frankfurt, Germany, where more than 1000 new members entered the water to speak their vows. The huge ceremony was part of the European congress attended by 50,000 members.

STEER CLEAR!—A contestant spills in the Sheriff's Rodeo in Los Angeles, the largest one-day show of its kind, while trying to bulldog a steer. The unique show, proceeds of which go to the Sheriff's Relief Association, drew almost 90,000 spectators.

SLOGAN GIRL—Donna Solars, 21-year-old graduate of the University of Nevada, is representing her state in the Miss America contest in Atlantic City, N. J. Donna doesn't rely on mere physical charms; she's showing some slogans she thinks the contestants should live up to.

VISITORS FROM ITALY

FINAL INSPECTION—Before the crew was dismissed for a sightseeing tour of Manhattan, Capt. Silvano Brengola, left, and acting Italian Consul General Alessandro Savorgnan review the ship's guard. The voyage, which began in Leghorn, Italy, has been a leisurely one on the vessel which resembles something out of a history book or a sea adventure novel, but those aboard her were anxious for a personal inspection of the "Land of the Free."

CRASH KILLS PILOT—A mail-carrying helicopter crashed in Lynwood, Calif., while circling for a landing. The pilot, Carl Donnell Crew, 26, was killed in the accident which was the third of its kind to happen this summer in the Los Angeles area. The body of the ship crashed in a vacant lot while the rotor smashed into a nearby house without injury to the occupants.

TWO TOO MANY—A four-legged pigeon was found by a youngster in Atlanta, Ga. The two sets of legs are an inch apart and fully developed. But the bird has no control over the rear set and their weight prevents it from getting off the ground for any length of time.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

OPONENTS DOUBLE AIDS THIS CONTRACT

By Oswald Jacoby

It happens to everybody occasionally. You're bidding alone quietly, minding your own business and trying very happily to get to the wrong contract. Then, suddenly, one of the opponents pushes you in the right direction. That happened to Mr. and Mrs. Cy Newman of Detroit, in the recent national championships at Washington. Mrs. Newman was headed for seven hearts, which would have been set. But then West helped her by doubling six spades.

That was an unlucky double. The bid of six spades wasn't meant seriously. It was a Blackwood Convention response, showing three kings. The double of six spades likewise wasn't meant seriously. It was intended to show East a favorable opening lead. But Mrs. Newman meant her redouble very, very seriously indeed. She had excellent spade support that had never been shown. This was a good way to show the support and at the same time to beat par on the hand. The play was quite interesting.

DR. CRANE SPEAKER BEFORE BROTHERHOOD

A capacity audience gathered in the small auditorium of St. Paul's Lutheran church Thursday evening for the regular meeting of the Men's Brotherhood. Pastor Nore Gustafson conducted devotions and a brief business meeting was held. Among reports given was one showing a total of $212 having been paid to the Ministerial Pension Fund. Highlight of the evening was the talk given by Dr. J. F. Crane and the pictures taken on his recent travels through Europe. Outstanding among impressions gained were the cleanliness, orderliness and the health program of the Scandinavian countries. His comments dealt interestingly with conditions in both Germany and England and pictures were expressive. The serving of refreshments concluded a very profitable evening. Hosts for the month were J. R. Fredell, G. Gustafson, Pastor Gustafson, A. Holmberg, J. A. Johnson, Melbourne Karlson, Carl Lundahl and Hilmar Roos.

Assistant Cashier of New Kensington Admits Embezzling

(From Page One) Kensington in the past few weeks. Ludwig Schiekat, president of the Parnassus National Bank at New Kensington, was released on $50,000 bond this week on charges of embezzling $800,000. H. Burns Smith, president of the First National Bank, said Smeltzer signed a statement that no other bank employee was involved. The FBI said Smeltzer covered the shortage by keeping two sets of records for certain ledger accounts. When bank examiners were in town, the FBI explained, Smeltzer inserted what should have been the correct ledgers.

Huge Crowd Anticipated for Annual Field Days At Wilder Athletic Field Tomorrow and Sunday

A busy two days are in prospect for area sportsmen and their families at Wilder Field tomorrow and Sunday when the Warren Field and Stream Club stages its annual Field Days.

One of the major events of the Field and Stream calendar, the Field Days customarily draw crowds ranging between 7000 and 8000 people, and the program arranged for this year should produce a new all-time record attendance.

The Field Day event opens Saturday afternoon, and here's a line-up on the first-day events:

3 p. m.—Warren High School Dragon Band, directed by Harry Summers, concert and drill.

4.30 p. m.—Plug and fly-casting demonstrated by a professional bait-caster from the Fenrod Company.

6 p. m.—Demonstration of speed wood cutting and axe-throwing by Archie Lobdell, New York State wood chopping champion.

7.30 p. m.—Outdoor movies featuring conservation and wildlife pictures.

Sunday's program gets underway right after noon, and here are the features of the day:

1 to 6 p. m.—free pony rides for the children.

1.30 p. m. and each hour thereafter—Music and drills by the Heather Highlanders, girls' bagpipe band from Youngstown, Ohio.

3 p. m.—Another demonstration of axemanship by Archie Lobdell.

4 p. m.—Fenrod plug and fly-casting demonstration.

5 p. m.—Skill and trick shooting by Fred L. Solsson, nationally known expert with the rifle, shotgun and revolver.

7 p. m.—Special feature.

In addition, there will be numerous exhibits including a display of Pennsylvania Fish owned by S. Carlyle Sheldon, a fish warden supervisor of the Fish Commission at Conneaut Lake; a wildlife display, a forestry display from the Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters, a live mink exhibit from the Valley View Mink Ranch; and a live trout display from the Farnsworth Rearing ponds of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Other activities in which the public may participate include archery shoots, Shoot the B, 22-calibre Luck Shoot, Running Deer Target for high power guns, plug casting, skeet and a big mid-way.

The Field and Stream Club's famed Fox Hole Inn will be dishing out its special brand of hamburgers and hotdogs, and there also will be a refreshment stand at which pop and ice cream will be served.

As in past years, there is no charge for admission and the parking and entertainment is free.

There are more than 400,000 miles of submarine cable in the world.

Big Crowd Greeted Joe Wilman at the Penn Tenpin Lanes

A large crowd of local tenpin enthusiasts crowded Penn Bowling Center last night to greet Joe Wilman, of Chicago, ace bowler and holder of numerous ABC records.

Wilman came here to demonstrate the use of the Brunswick Rangelanders which were installed during the summer months at both the Penn and Arcade lanes.

In addition to showing the proper use of the Rangelanders, which enable even the beginners to "spot bowl" for greater accuracy, Wilman rolled four exhibition games with Norm Wooster and Peg Finley, two of Warren's best tenpin topplers.

Wooster beat Joe, 181 to 180, in the first game, but lost the second by a 211 to 186 count.

Wilman cracked the two-century mark again to top Miss Finley 205 to 172, but in the second match, Peg shaded Wilman, 184 to 181.

Warren Dragons Seek 2nd Win Against Franklin High Tonight

Back on the road for the second time in the 1951 grid season, the Warren High Dragons venture to Franklin tonight in search of their second win against the Nursery-men under the aegis of Miller-Sibley Field at 8 o'clock.

Having defeated Corry last week to tie Oil City for first place in the newly formed District 10, Section 2 Football Conference, a victory over Franklin tonight would give Coach J. E. Leidig's team a sure top place in the league, since all other conference members are scheduled for independent contests.

Oil City will be making its first home appearance by playing host to Grove City Friday night; the Titusville Rockets will be guests of Millersburg; Farrell goes to Meadville; and Saturday night Corry entertains Youngsville in a "Potato Bowl" game.

The Warren varsity appeared in fine shape for their opening campaign last week, with off-tackle plays clicking well against the heavy Corry line and the defense proving its ability and effectiveness numerous times.

The weatherman has been behaving throughout the week, allowing the Dragons to hold practice sessions every day and giving the coaching staff an opportunity to straighten out some of the kinks.

Coach Leidig and his squad will leave by bus at 5 o'clock this afternoon for Franklin and will change into uniforms at the Franklin YMCA before going to the field.

The probable starting lineups for Leidig and Franklin Coach John Uram are:

Wolverines Face Ridgway Saturday

The Sheffield Wolverines will play host to Ridgway in their first home game of the season tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. on Memorial field.

The Sheffield gridgers will be seeking to avenge last year's 32-0 setback at the hands of the Elfers.

In the backfield there will be Bob Goldthwaite, quarter; Jim Slater, right half; Bill Troutman, left half, and Ronnie Kasaback at fullback.

Games Carded For Reserve Gridgers

While the Warren High varsity football team is working on a full 10-game schedule this year, the seconds and freshmen squads have also been slated for several home and away contests for weekdays throughout September and October.

So far the Seconds have played Corry and two Third teams have met with Sheffield and Youngsville.
